LIFE INSURANCE COVERAGE IS AVAILABLE IN THIS PRODUCT.

WHAT IS EMPLOYEE DEPOSIT LINKED INSURANCE?

For all employees who are covered under the Employees' Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provision Act, 1952, it is mandatory for you as an employer to subscribe to an Employee Deposit Linked Insurance Scheme, 1976, which aims at providing benefit of Life Insurance to all employees. Under this scheme, the deceased employee's insurance benefit will depend on the length of service and the PF balance in the account. At any given point, the benefit under this scheme would not exceed ₹3,60,000.

Under Section 17 (2a) of the Employees' Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provision Act, 1952, the employer may be exempted from this scheme, if the employer has provided for better insurance benefits than the cover offered by Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) through a Life Insurer. Max Life Group Super Life Premier is a better alternative for EDLI Plan of Employees' Provident Fund Organisation.

By opting for Max Life Group Super Life Premier in lieu of EDLI, the employer gets the following benefits:

- Enhanced Benefit: Max Life Insurance gives a minimum benefit of ₹3,61,000 which can be extended up to ₹6,00,000 which is more than RPFC (Regional Provident Fund Commissioner) specified norms of coverage
- Administrative Ease: Better service levels and a dedicated relationship manager will manage your account
- Claim Settlement: A simple and effective claim settlement process is followed
- Assistance in getting the relaxation from Regional Provident Fund Commissioner: We assist you in facilitating the documentation process for relaxation
